

GRONEWOLD AND REIFF ELECTED TRUMPET HEADS

Hiltraude Braulick, E.
Leschenky to Be Assistants.

Emilie Gronewold, of Gehring, Nebr., and Gerhardt Reiff, of Waukesha, Wis., will head the Wartburg Trumpet next year as a result of the recent election.

Students elected heads from the 12 members of the club who submitted their names.

MANAGED OPERATION OF BANQUET

Hiltraude Gronewold, elected editor of the Trumpet, was graduated from Guthrie Center High School. She was a reporter for the school newspaper. She attended Hebrew University, and studied Hebrew, English, French and sophomore years and then transferred to Hebrew University. She is a member of the Hebrew Club. She is a pre-theological student.

The Trumpet will be appointed in a short time. "We will be able to have the publication as we should have a good student body next year," says

Miss Gronewold.

Reiff Again a Trumpet Head

Gerhardt Reiff, who was re-elected as business manager of the Trumpet.
He was elected to the position as a pre-theological student. He was born in Waukesha, Wis., and is the son of the Rev. Paul Reiff, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran.

He is a graduate of Texas Lutheran College, Seguin, Texas, and of the Loyola Star Lutheran. She also worked on the staff of the school publication of the Texas high school.

Emilie Leschenky, assistant business manager, was elected to the position for the second year.

At St. Paul-Lutheran, which she attended last year, she was admitted into the choir.

She is a member of the Trumpet.

Will Take Charge

According to Miss Gronewold, the Trumpet will be the Trumpet next year, but the new heads will take charge of the three months remaining in the school year. The 1936-37 year will probably start.

1936-37 CATALOG GOES TO PRESS

Sociology, Home Economics,
French and Journalism
Minor to be Offered.

The Wartburg catalog for 1936-37 goes to press according to an official report. "It will appear in the fall," says Dr. J. E. Brink, who is in charge of the catalog. "The previous years' Wartburg catalogs catalogs, which were the same as the present catalog, were compiled by students, who then had to be checked by the faculty.

Sociology, More Journalism

Sociology, freshman orientation, French, journalism, home economics and French are listed on the curriculum for next year.

French will be offered as a minor for the courses. Professor A. C.
Fritz will be in charge of sociology.

Professor H. J. Schumann of journalism and Miss Frances Twells of French will be the faculty members.

New English courses, announced some time ago, will be offered for those taking the one, two or four year courses. Professor Dr. J.
Bilger will teach English, and the other courses will be taught by members of the faculty.

Will Attend Summer School

Professor A. C. Fritz, of Waukesha, Wis., will attend summer school this summer to prepare for teaching the new courses.

Philosophies have been eliminating some courses, such as English, home economics and French. If home economics is taught, another faculty member will be needed, according to President Branch.

Juniors Prepare to Entertain Seniors

The Wartburg seniors will be the guests of the junior class on May 26, the junior class will be the guests of the seniors. The nature of the event has not yet been determined but it will be a social affair, says president of the class. A banquet, a theatre party and a piano have been suggested. Committees will be appointed this week to make plans for the event.

TOUR MANAGER

The Rev. A. H. Fries, unknown manager of the Wartburg

HANFF SPEAKER AT CONVOCATION

Jahr and Meyer Are Student Speakers; Gards Taxis on Church Schools.

The Rev. E. A. Hanff, Tipton, spoke at the Convocation March 30 on "The Christian Life." "In order to combat the great evils in our country today, the spiritual power of Christ is most must be inculcated into the hearts and minds of our youth," the speaker emphasized.

He emphasized the fact that our Christian colleges are working as the main line of defense against the main forces of evil by instilling the teachings and preaching of the Christ.

Jahr and Meyer Concluded Chapel. "The Rev. Dr. W. E. Gards, president of the student body, spoke on "The Cross of Christ." I am sure that the great program of the cross which is often given to give that peace which the world needs.

Part of the program of the student body president, and chair of the Friday convocation April 13, was the "Cross of Christ" as the symbol of the mystery of the Passion.

Differences. The Rev. E. G. Cross of Preston, Minn., addressed the convocation April 13 on "The Cross of Christ." The differences between the various church schools were the basis of Mr. Cross' address.

"Our church people expect our Christian leaders to be the leaders in the world," he said.

Members of the Hesston church presented vocal and instrumental selections.

President E. J. Branklik spoke on the "Cross of Christ" at a "Cross Center" at the meeting of the P. T. A. at Plainfield April 17.

OPERA COMPANY GIVES BENEFIT

Concert Group Includes Tenor and Soprano Soloists, Also Flute and Violin.

Four members of the San Carlos Opera company, including a soprano soloist, Miss Lois Albrecht, Miss Phil Clarke, tenor, and violinist, will give a benefit concert April 1. "Let us turn away from the world and turn to the cross which is often given to give that peace which the world needs."

Haywood Meyer, senior pre-licensed student, and chair of the Friday convocation April 13, was the "Cross of Christ" as the symbol of the mystery of the Passion.

Differences. The Rev. E. G. Cross of Preston, Minn., addressed the convocation April 13 on "The Cross of Christ." The differences between the various church schools were the basis of Mr. Cross' address.

"Our church people expect our Christian leaders to be the leaders in the world," he said.
